

Do you know people who shy away from reading the Bible because it seems irrelevant or strange? Do you know someone who's afraid of getting into the Bible but wants to? Maybe it's YOU. For some it's as scary as jumping into an overcrowded swimming pool and wouldn't know where or how to swim.

With this proper introduction, you'll have a renewed understanding of the most important book on earth. Once inside, we'll find its pages hold the answers to the life's most important questions. These basic Bible teachings will help you swim in everyday life all the way to heaven with nourishment and refreshment in your relationship to Jesus Christ.

Bible Basics

(Bible Information Class)

TUESDAY, September 6th, 2011

7:00 PM

Bible Study is intended for:

YOU - seeking membership in our congregation (Confirmation)

YOU - who has been confirmed but it's been a few years

YOU - to invite an unchurched friend(s) and bring along with you

YOU - since you can't find anything else to do on Tuesday nights

YOU - if none of the above applies to you

Come as you are. We'll provide some coffee or you can bring your own beverage. If you know of someone who's just waiting to be asked, invite them today and come along.
